§ 7 Environmental Codex

In addition to our house rules, we have an environmental code derived from the guidelines of the Dutch Association of Off-Road Vehicle Clubs (FNTC). We have set up this environmental code out of respect for nature. We want to protect and maintain the flora and fauna in this area so that many more generations can enjoy it.

Environmental Codex on closed terrain:

- Always follow the instructions of the organization.
- Drive calm and controlled.
- Follow the designated route.
- If you have to drive a detour, avoid the green areas.
- Do not cause unnecessary noise.
- Do not leave any trash behind.
- Do not bother the other visitors.
- Make sure the SUV is free of oil and grease.
- Perform repairs in the field on a liquid-tight surface.
- When leaving the premises make sure that the vehicle lighting and license plate comply with the applicable traffic regulations.
- Make sure that your tires are not a nuisance to other road users.

Environmental Codex on dirt roads:

- Only drive where permitted and only on the specified routes. It is important that you clarify in advance (using the map with additional information) on which routes can and may be driven. Do not deviate from the given routes. In no case create your own routes! Other drivers will be able to follow the trails you left behind, causing unnecessary damage to nature.
- Show respect for nature and the environment. Be extra careful and pay special attention to game with boys. Avoid damage to trees and plants. Watch out for the risk of fire. Do not pollute nature with garbage or waste. Make sure that the vehicle is free of oil and grease residues. Perform repairs in the field on a liquid-tight surface.
- Respect the rights of third parties. Do not open grates or the like that are obviously designed to deny passers-by.
- Observe the traffic rules, traffic signs, traffic signs and respect the other road users. Non-compliance with the basic traffic rules often causes annoyance to other road users.
- Make sure that you do not hinder cyclists, pedestrians and riders who are on the racetrack. Drive around generously if necessary or decrease your pace. Adjust your pace and avoid unnecessary dust clouds. Also try not to spill anyone with water or mud. Do not cause any annoyance (including noise pollution) to others. A friendly greeting when driving over creates a good atmosphere.

Anyone who does not knowingly obey house rules and the Code will be removed from the site and excluded from further visits.
